Muang La Resort Muang La (Deluxe)

On the edge of a small village where local people follow a traditional lifestyle, Muang La Resort was built to respect its surroundings. Swathed in greenery, the resort is surrounded by forests, rice fields and hot-water springs that are thousands of years old; offering you complete immersion in this natural paradise.

The resort comprises of 8 rooms built in 4 small villas. Each room offers a rich blend of traditional construction and furniture of a more modern design. The individually styled rooms' house works of art by Laotian painters and sculptors, and all are named after local ethnic groups. Lanten, Ikho, Hmong, Akha, Khamu and Tai Lu. Inside the rooms, the bleached walls emphasize the softness of the wood. The beams, the parquet floor and furniture have been treated with local essential oils to give a light perfume to wood. Pieces of local art and traditional fabrics woven by women from the surrounding area add the finishing touches and give the rooms their individual character. Each room has an en-suite, modern and beautifully decorated bathroom with shower and toilet. The resort also features a fine restaurant serving delicious local cuisine and also a Spa.
