Vat Phou Cruise Southern Laos (Superior)

The Vat Phou Mekong cruise proposes a 3 day / 2 night cruise that starts and finishes in Pakse, Laos. This cruise on the southern part of the Mekong river in Laos visits the majestic UNESCO World Heritage Vat Phou ruins at Champassak, the mysterious Oum Muong ruins at Huei Thamo, the 4000 Islands with its myriad of waterways, and the Pha Pheng waterfall on the Laos - Cambodia border.

The boat features 12 air conditioned twin shared cabins with private bathrooms, two large open shaded air decks, a bar, and a restaurant. The Vat Phou boat has two areas where meals can be served. Breakfast and lunch is served upstairs on the rear deck so you can continue to appreciate the view on the Mekong river while you are eating. All meals are included on the Vat Phou Mekong cruise and galley produces the finest of Laotian, Vietnamese and Thai dishes, lovingly prepared and beautifully presented.
